

LIT LAB

We have procedures, now what?

Let's move into sharing more mini-lessons, conferring with students, using formative and summative assessments to guide our instruction and using data to plug-in interventions. Each day of this training will include two 90-minute lessons and one 50-minute lesson to help educators better use their allotted time to implement the comprehensive literacy workshop model.

Lit Lab Revisited Days 1 & 2 plus one year of classroom implementation are prerequisites to Lit Lab Reviewed Days 3 & 4.

You've asked for it. Now, here it is! The opportunity to experience reading and writing workshop at the next level. Leave with a clearer understanding of how to address individual needs within small group settings while creating an engaging literate environment through the workshop model.

Registration is $50. Please fill out the form and mail both the check (payable to "Literacy Lab") and completed form to the address below. Register by July 1st. Call 501-279-4092 to cancel.

Name: _____

Email: _____

Home Address: _____

Phone: _____

Circle session in which you prefer to attend

July 20-21 July 25-26 July 27-28

To accommodate as many people as possible, there will be a participant room and an observation room.

Please circle the room in which you prefer.

Participant

Observer

One hour of graduate credit is available for an additional fee.

Smart Step Literacy Lab
Harding University
BOX 12254 Searcy, AR 72149

Day Three

Through a simulated reading workshop classroom experience, we will utilize data from formal and informal reading assessments to determine small group formulation, model reading comprehension mini-lessons, and determine appropriate interventions all within the established daily schedule.

Day Four

Within a simulated writing workshop classroom experience, let's continue to grow our writer's notebooks, model mini-lessons for usage and mechanics using mentor text, and use rubrics and checklists to develop our writing. Learn ways to use interventions to differentiate instruction for students.

REVIEWED